This is just one example of an evil that is "Rife" in Britain at this time. See my site ! No matter what you think of the BNP, or me, help the children that are caught up in this evil, an evil that is cultivated by the MARXISTS so that the victims and the criminals, can be politically blackmailed or leaned on in the future.

Justice for Hollie Greig AND Robert Green

By Mike Whitby-I recently posted an article which mentioned the fact that Robert Green has been imprisoned AGAIN, for campaigning on behalf of Hollie Greig, the young Downs Syndrome girl that was gang raped by men who are ALLEGEDLY being "protected" by the Scottish Establishment.

Before I continue with this article, I must make it very clear that political parties, such as ours, are under enormous pressure to watch what we say and what we print.

So, I must stress that we are unable to repeat some of the things that appear on other websites. And, we can only print the basic facts and direct you elsewhere for more information.

Scottish law is different to English law, and this has enabled certain people to use a combination of obfuscation and bully boy tactics to imprison Robert Green, for simply demanding that the truth be told about Hollie Greig.

In June 2010, I went to a meeting in Liverpool, where a presentation was taking place by a man I had never met, named Robert Green.

He was talking about the plight of a Downs Syndrome girl, from Aberdeen, named Hollie Greig, who had been systematically raped, by several men, ALLEGEDLY including her own father.

Robert had heard about it and was determined to help her, so he had embarked upon a series of talks around the North West of England. Throughout his talk, Robert was very careful not to accuse anyone of a crime and he consistently used the term 'ALLEGEDLY'.

As he spoke of the horrific multiple rapes of this little girl, Robert explained that he was absolutely determined to help get justice for Hollie Greig. The details were enough to make anyone cringe, and yet the authorities were extremely reluctant to do anything about it.

Why should that be?

Also, Hollie's mother, Anne, was ALLEGEDLY told by her brother that he had stumbled upon Hollie being sexually assaulted by her father. After that, the two of them started their investigations and discussed it with Hollie.

Her mother asked Hollie if anything had happened to her, and she was shocked when Hollie told her what had been going on – and that other children had also been involved.

Although she had not yet reached puberty, Hollie began to tell her mother of 'private' things that children of her age would not normally know about; also Hollie made physical gestures to describe what had happened to her, making it clear that she knew about sex acts.

Anne Greig reported this to the police, but they didn't seem to be interested. She continued to demand that they investigate the matter fully, and she kept on demanding justice, but she got nowhere.

Also at that time, Anne's brother, who had first alerted Anne to what was going on, was found dead in his burnt-out car.

The authorities said he had 'probably' committed suicide, but forensic evidence came to light, involving injuries to his head, to suggest that foul play had taken place.

When Anne's brother was found dead, she was stricken with terror, and she fled to England with Hollie and stayed with friends, in Shropshire.

From a distance, Anne continued to press the Aberdeen police to do their job and investigate those horrific crimes.

But, instead of investigating the crimes on children and the ALLEGED murder of Anne's brother, the police reported her to the Social Services (SS).

The SS then came to Anne's home to have her sectioned under the Mental Health Act!

The more that Anne protested, the more aggressive the SS became, until eventually, they forcefully injected her with a sedative and started to drag her from her home and into a waiting ambulance.

Anne struggled with the SS and they virtually stripped her naked in the struggle, outside her home. They then had her committed to a mental home and tests were carried out to establish her level of sanity.

Thankfully, those tests proved that Anne was/is perfectly sane, and they were forced to release her.

Rather than frighten her off, this experience made her all the more determined to get justice for her daughter and the other children who had been gang raped. As her brother had done, before he was found dead.

Belatedly, the police began their investigations, and they interviewed Hollie, with the assistance of child psychologists and all of the facts began to unfold.

Hollie was examined and sure enough, the authorities found that she had been raped on several occasions – I believe she was just ten years old at that time.

Evidently, some Downs Syndrome children are known to have photographic memories, and Hollie was able to indicate what had taken place, over a prolonged period of time.

Also, she could describe all of the adults involved, along with the other child victims.

By that time, the main suspects, Hollie's father and her brother, had absconded and their whereabouts were unknown. But, the police didn't appear to want to find them.

Some high profile members of the Scottish Establishment were suspected of ALLEGED involvement in this, and were said to be part of a satanic sect, known as The Speculative Society.

The Scottish authorities finally accepted that Hollie Greig had been raped by unknown persons and she was awarded a nominal sum of money as compensation – God knows how much it was, but no amount of money can compensate for what that child has been through.

Also, despite this official acceptance of these appalling crimes being committed, the authorities did virtually nothing to track down the rapists. ALLEGEDLY, the police still didn't seem interested and they also claimed they had no idea where the main rape suspects were.

It is my understanding that, after five years, the police have still not found and interviewed Hollie's father and her brother, or any other suspects, in relation to these crimes.

Robert Green, who lives in Warrington, Cheshire, had heard about Hollie and Anne's campaign for justice and decided to help.

He then embarked upon the series of talks, mentioned above.

Later that year, 2010, Robert decided to stand as an Independent Parliamentary Candidate for Aberdeen South.

He stood on one platform only; Justice for Hollie Greig. He produced some leaflets and travelled to Aberdeen to begin his hustings campaign.

However, as he walked from his car toward Aberdeen town centre, Robert was stopped by police officers and arrested, because; "the police suspected that he was about to cause a breach of the peace."

He had not done anything wrong, but was arrested and held in a police cell for three days.

Also, whilst he was in that police cell, several police officers travelled from Aberdeen to Warrington and ransacked his home, with the assistance of the Cheshire Constabulary.

The police claimed to have a warrant to carry out their search and Robert requested a copy of said warrant, but to this day, four years later, he has still not received a copy of that warrant. Robert has continued his campaign for four years and has worked tirelessly to get justice for Hollie, and pursued it through the courts. Further information can be found here;

But, in February of this year, Robert Green was arrested AGAIN and sent to prison for three months....

STOP PRESS: Robert was arrested at his home at around midday today by 2? 3? officers of Grampian Police and has been taken to Aberdeen. The arresting officer DS Drummond had a search warrant but it is not known whether the house was searched before they drove with Robert to Aberdeen. The charge is 'Breach of a Non-Harassment Order'.

Robert is still imprisoned at HMP Perth – simply because he demands that the truth be told!

Thankfully, he has a tremendous spirit and he is managing to cope with the injustice of it all - these days, the guilty ones go free and the truth-seekers are made to suffer.

Robert is not alone in being targeted by the thugs-in-uniforms, who regularly carry out the orders of their masters, without question as to any guilt.

As we know very well, many of our colleagues have been unlawfully arrested and imprisoned, for simply telling the truth.

The list of patriots who have suffered, due to the lies and duplicity of Establishment puppets speaks volumes, and begs the question; what is it that they are afraid of?

Could it be that we are touching a nerve and certain people are twitching in fear of being exposed?

If you were to search the internet, using the names; Hollie Greig and Robert Green, you will find some very interesting information that WE cannot display on this site.

Robert Green is a very honourable man, and it would really cheer him up to hear from anyone who would care to write to him.

His address details are as follows;

George Robert Green No.125799
HMP Perth,
3 Edinburgh Road

Perth

PH2 8AT

Robert is NOT involved with our party, or any political party, but he is a friend and a gentleman.

So, please send him a letter to let him know that we appreciate what he is doing for Hollie Greig and all of the victims of child abuse. One day, we will defeat the devils that are hurting children, along with their friends in high places that protect them.

Remember what George Orwell said: "In a Time of Universal Deceit — Telling the Truth Is a Revolutionary Act."

By the way, if you are intending to send Robert a donation, please remember to mention it in your letter, in case the money goes missing.

Robert says that the prison officers are decent people, but it's best to be safe than sorry.

Thanks for your support.
