Printed and promoted by the British National Party, PO 213, Wighton, Cumbria CA7 7AL

'Groomers' try to trick girls into thinking they are in a loving relationship, when really they're being set up for gang rape and sex abuse.

To make sure it doesn't happen to you or a friend, you need to know the tell-tale signs of grooming.

This simple test is your first step to finding out the truth. It only takes a few moments, but it could save you or a friend from grooming gangs

How to recognise and protect yourself against grooming gangs

Helping you to stay safe

For over 10 years, the politicians, BBC and media have covered up the shocking reality of organised racist Muslim sex gangs, also known as 'grooming gangs' which prey on underage girls from outside their community for sex and prostitution.

Although well aware of these sickening racist crimes, politicians and the BBC have worked to silence those who spoke out about it, and they are still doing so.

They will even try to ban this leaflet because it warns you of the dangers of grooming gangs!

How did the BBC react when BNP Leader Nick Griffin warned about Muslim grooming gangs? They tried to have him locked up for 7 years, leaving the 'grooming gangs' to wreck the lives of countless more girls.

10 years on and the authorities now admit that Nick Griffin was right. Even The Sun newspaper was forced to print the truth for once – 'the BNP was right!'

The authorities failed us, the British people, but we can always count on the British National Party (BNP) to fight for us and for justice.

Protect yourself – the BNP will help!

Thanks to brave people like Nick Griffin, Muslim grooming gangs are finally being brought to justice

Fighting the grooming gangs

The grim account on the reverse of this leaflet is adapted from the accounts of real-life victims of grooming gangs

Read it carefully so that you know what signs to look for to identify a 'groomer'

Then take the following steps:

1. Report him to the police

If you are approached by someone you suspect is a 'groomer' inform the police right away

2. Tell your parents

Inform your parents right away, because they want you to be safe

3. Tell your teachers

If 'groomers' are prowling your area you MUST warn other girls. The best way to do this is tell your teacher so they can announce it to the class

4. Contact ProFam

ProFam is an independent organisation here to help YOU in situations like this. ProFam will ensure police take your reports seriously; make sure your teachers take action; and provide all the advice you and your parents need. Email natsec@profam.org.uk or call 02476 980 768

5. Contact the BNP

In the past, some police and teachers have refused to help grooming victims. Fortunately most now take the crime very seriously. But just to be safe, tell us as well so we can make sure they take the action you deserve. Email enquiries@bnp.org.uk or call 0844 809 4581

BEWARE

Do NOT be another statistic

Muslim grooming gangs only prey on girls from non-Muslim communities.

They target English girls, other white British girls, and in some instances girls of Afro-Caribbean, Hindu or Sikh heritage.

If you're a Sikh he may pretend to be one too, even wearing a bangle and using a Sikh name.

The following description of a 'grooming gang' ordeal is compiled from various real-life accounts from victims:

Convicted paedophiles from grooming gangs

These are 'groomers'
...this is what they look like

The story of a grooming gang victim...

He'll give you cigarettes and whatever you want to drink.

It seems grown up, and it is all your own private 'fun time'. But he'll keep reminding you, never tell anyone or he'll stop having you for 'his girl'. His family might own a minicab firm or a takeaway shop, so you will get free lifts or food and drinks. It is all part of 'your secret', he'll say, no telling or it will end and you will lose the 'love of your life'.

He'll probably own a car, so when he picks you up outside school or at the bus stop you'll feel really grown up. He'll make you feel like he really loves you. He'll be there when you feel alone. He'll make you feel special.

He'll give you little presents - cheap jewellery or perhaps a mobile so you can call him without your parents knowing. He'll not want you to tell your parents - it will be 'your secret'. He'll give you little gifts but he will not want you to tell your parents - it will be 'your secret'.

When he's got you really 'needing' him, he'll give you stronger alcohol, like vodka and perhaps weed to smoke - anything to make you relaxed and happy. He might also suggest you go to his home, but remember it is your secret and no one else need ever know - what fun just you and him.

You will probably never meet his family but you may have already met his friends. Perhaps gone out with them with your girlfriends - had fun, been drinking and been offered 'gear'. 'Gear' means all illegal drugs, hash, coke, heroin and more. Like alcohol, it will make you feel happy and spaced out. It will also make you open to suggestions...

Sooner or later, while in this happy, happy state, you will be taken to a 'Party House' by your 'boyfriend'. There you will meet older guys, often including his cousins or even his uncles. He will say you'll have a 'good' time.

What he means is that they're going to have a 'good' time, on you. In a dirty room, on a bloodstained mattress, where they've done the same to other girls who've been fooled the same way. One after another or in groups. Because despite his smooth talk, the only thing they want you for is sex. This is why he's spent weeks or months 'grooming' you. Now he and his friends will rape you. Over and over again. No matter how hard you beg them to stop.

But it won't end even then. Next they'll threaten to kill you or scar you for life, if you go to the police. Or to rape your sister or your mum or petrol bomb your house if you tell anyone in your family.

Once they've broken you, you might be given a lift home.

Now the 'fun times' are over. The alcohol will continue, and you will drink to try to forget the pain and the shame. The drugs will continue but now you are hooked you'll have to pay for each 'fix' by letting a queue of filthy older men have sex with you.

You have become a 'business', a money making body and nothing more. And you'll still have to keep it a secret, even though none of it is 'fun' or 'laughs' any more...

Don't let it happen to you!

Not a pretty tale of love or even romance but a nightmare for you and your family.

Remember, if someone makes you have sex when you don't want to, it's not 'love' - it's rape! You will end up in a 'Party House' or much, much worse!

Heroin is NOT a fun drug, it will destroy your life, the lives of those who care about you, and eventually take it from you. You are worth more than that!

This 'grooming' can start in school or just outside your school. It can start in kebab shops, arcades, mobile phone shops, coffee Bars or just meeting 'friends'.

But wherever the grooming starts, the nightmare will only end when you break your silence and tell someone about it.

It's not a 'secret' it is a very serious crime, and it will ruin your life.
